

February 7, 2012

Attention: Music Directors, Guidance Directors, and Principals

Enclosed please find the 2012 application for the Salem County Brass Society Scholarship. Remember that it is a competitive scholarship for any current senior aspiring to a career in music, whether vocal or instrumental. The award is for $2000., to be awarded over 4 years of college.

Please give the availability of this scholarship early advertisement, since the deadline for submission is April 6th, 2012, and a performance recording is required.

Please have applicants read the informational material thoroughly. The recommendation form must be signed by the appropriate person. If additional application or recommendation forms are necessary, please feel free to photocopy as needed. All the forms are also available on our website: <http://www.salemcountybrass.org>

Applicants for the scholarship are reviewed and selected by an independent panel of judges. The scholarship will be awarded at the Brass Society's annual spring concert to be held April 21, 2012. Our scholarship winner is invited to perform at the award concert.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. We encourage all potential music students to avail themselves of this opportunity. Remember the deadline is April 6th. All applications must be complete to be considered.

Sincerely,
Scott West,
Scholarship Chairman
Encls.
